

Privacy Policy

Handfuls of Hope is committed to our donors privacy.

We respect your privacy and do not rent, sell, or exchange your personal information. In common with other websites, log files are stored on our web server saving details such as the visitor's IP address, browser type, referring page and time of visit. Cookies may be used to remember visitor preferences when interacting with the website. Where registration is required, the visitor's email, a username, password and personal information will be stored on the server.

How do you get my consent?

When you provide us with personal information to complete a transaction, verify your credit card, sponsor a child, support a missionary or support a mission trip, we imply that you consent to our collecting it and using it for that specific reason.

How the Information is used

The information is used to enhance the visitor's experience when using the website to display personalized content.

E-mail addresses and other personal information will not be sold, rented or leased to 3rd parties.

E-mails may be sent to inform you of news within Handfuls of Hope only.

Cookies

Cookies are small digital signature files that are stored by your web browser that allow your preferences to be recorded when visiting the website. Also they may be used to track your return visits to the website. You may be able to block cookies via your browser settings but this may prevent you from access to certain features of the website.

Changes to this policy

We reserve the right to make changes to this privacy policy without advance notice. Changes to this policy were last made on April 16, 2019.
